

2021 Training Opportunities

Infection Prevention & Control Study Day for Community staff

Aims/Purpose:

To update community healthcare workers on current and emerging Infection Prevention and control practices, guidelines and diseases.

Content:

Includes but not limited to: Transmissible diseases and emerging multi- drug resistant organisms, new IPC policies and procedures, review of ARC and PHO specific IPC issues and trends.

| Available to: | Price (+ GST) | Booking Method | |
|---|---|--|----------------|
| Hutt Valley DHB Staff | N/A | | |
| Wairarapa/CCDHB Staff | N/A | | |
| External Health Professionals (Primary Health, PHO, Aged Care) | free | Infection_Control@huttvalleydhb.org.nz | |
| Private sector & other DHB's | free | Infection_Control@huttvalleydhb.org.nz | |
| Target Audience | All community Health care workers | | |
| Pre reading requirements | None | | |
| Course Facilitator | Sarah Thomas – Infection Prevention & Control Clinical Nurse Specialist | | |
| Food Provided | Morning tea | | |
| Course Details: | | | |
| Day | Date | Venue | Start - Finish |
| Thursday | 18/11/2021 | Clock Tower Building Level 1, Learning Centre Auditorium | 0830 - 1600 |