

2022 Training Opportunities

Name: AHST New Graduate Programme

Aims/Purpose: Supporting Allied Health, Scientific & Technical new graduates to thrive in their roles at CCDHB & HVDHB

Content: (Please note: learners should attend all sessions)

Session 1: formal cultural opening and welcome, DHB values, interprofessional case study, learning styles

Session 2: the patient and whānau experience (includes Māori health and Pacific health)

Session 3: keeping everyone safe - patient and staff safety, conflict management, reportable events

Session 4: next steps, professional development, quality improvement, reflections and evaluations

Available to:	Price (+ GST)	Booking Method
Hutt Valley DHB Staff	Nil	MyPay or contact course facilitator
Wairarapa/CCDHB Staff	Nil	ConnectMe or contact course facilitator
External Health Professionals (Primary Health, PHO, Aged Care)	N/A
Private sector & other DHB's	N/A

Target Audience	AHST new graduates
Pre reading requirements	Nil
Course Facilitator	Thomas Bond (Thomas.Bond@ccdhb.org.nz)
Food Provided	Tea and coffee. Please bring your own lunch.

Course Details:

	Day	Date	Venue	Start - Finish
Session 1	Wednesday	11 th May 2022	Easthope Seminar Room, WSB - Level 12, Wellington Hospital	12.30-4:00pm
Session 2	Wednesday	8 th June 2022	L1104 (Education Centre), WSB - Level 11, Wellington Hospital	12.30-4:00pm
Session 3	Thursday	30 th June 2022	Meeting Room 2, Learning Centre (Hutt Hospital)	12.30-4:00pm
Session 4	Tuesday	9 th August 2022	L1104 (Education Centre), WSB - Level 11, Wellington Hospital	12.30-4:00pm

Note: there may be another intake this year if there is demand – please contact facilitator Thomas Bond to enquire.