

2022 Training Opportunities

Name: Allied Health Introduction to Professional Supervision (General Health)

Aims/Purpose: This introductory course is for Allied health staff working in general health with limited knowledge of professional supervision and ready to start as professional supervisors. This course is an introduction to the process and skills required of an effective supervisor at HVDHB & CCDHB

Content: (Note: this is a 2 day training workshop – please attend both days)

- what professional supervision is and the functions of supervision
- the roles and responsibilities of those involved in professional supervision
- the structure and process of setting up and maintaining a supervision relationship
- the skills required of a supervisor
- tips and techniques to use to facilitate supervision

Available to:	Price (+ GST)	Booking Method
Hutt Valley DHB Staff	Nil	MyPay or contact course facilitator
Wairarapa/CCDHB Staff	Nil	ConnectMe or contact course facilitator
External Health Professionals (Primary Health, PHO, Aged Care)	N/A	N/A
Private sector & other DHB's	N/A	N/A

Target Audience	Allied Health Staff (General Health) with limited professional supervision knowledge / experience who wish to become professional supervisors
Pre reading requirements	Nil
Course Facilitator	Megan Griffiths (Megan.Griffiths@ccdhb.org.nz)
Food Provided	Tea and coffee. Please bring your own lunch

Course Details:

	Day	Date	Venue	Start - Finish
Day 1	Monday	23 rd May 2022	Meeting Room 2, Learning Centre, Hutt Valley Hospital	08:00 – 16:30
Day 2	Tuesday	31 st May 2022	Auditorium, Learning Centre, Hutt Valley Hospital	08:00 – 16:30
Day 1	Thursday	20 th October 2022	Meeting Room 2, Learning Centre, Hutt Valley Hospital	08:00 – 16:30
Day 2	Thursday	27 th October 2022	Meeting Room 2, Learning Centre, Hutt Valley Hospital	08:00 – 16:30