

Palliative Care Introductory Study Day

Learning outcomes:

This introduction to palliative care study day is aimed at nurses working with patients who have palliative care needs and their family/whānau. It will assist nurses in providing holistic care, managing common symptoms and caring for the dying person.

Content:

Introduction to palliative care

Introduction to Clinical assessment and management

- Pain
- Nausea
- Dyspnoea

Communication with patients family/whānau

Recognising the dying person

- Use of Te Ara Whakapiri and other resources

Available to:	Price (+ GST)	Booking Method
Hutt Valley Staff	Nil	MyPay (search Palliative Care Study Day – then select Palliative Care Introductory & Date)
External Health Professionals (Primary Health, PHO, Aged Care)	N/a	MyPay

Target Audience	Nursing staff
Pre reading requirements	Nil
Course Facilitator	Clinical Nurse Specialist : Sonya.Dickens@huttvalleydhb.org.nz
Food Provided	Morning tea + tea and coffee

Course Details:

Day	Date	Venue	Start - Finish
Wednesday	31 May 2023	Learning Centre, Room 3, Hutt Hospital	0830 - 1600
Monday	11 September 2023	Learning Centre, Room 3, Hutt Hospital	0830 – 1600