

Foundation of Stroke - Education Day

Aims/Purpose:

To provide health professionals with an understanding of Acute stroke, it's management and the importance of the allied health team's involvement in the recovery of stroke patients.

Content:

- What is Acute Stroke?
- Treatment and management
- Post stroke medications
- Communication and Swallowing
- Early mobilisation
- Early Supported Discharge
- Reducing Stressors that may impact patient's recovery
- Telemetry

Available to:	Price (+ GST)	Booking Method
Hutt Valley Staff	NIL	MyPay Learning & Development
Wairarapa/Capital & Coast Staff	NIL	Email: Michelle.Martin@huttvalleydhb.org.nz
External Health Professionals (Primary Health, PHO, Aged Care)	NIL	Email: Michelle.Martin@huttvalleydhb.org.nz
Private Sector	$115	Email: Michelle.Martin@huttvalleydhb.org.nz

Target Audience	The day is offered to all health professionals with an interest in providing quality care for stroke patients and family. A basic knowledge of stroke care is recommended.
Pre reading requirements	NIL
Course Facilitator	Amelie Chapman, Stroke Clinical Nurse Specialist
Food Provided	Coffee, tea, and biscuits provided for morning and afternoon tea. *Lunch is not provided *Please bring your own Water Bottle

Course Details:

Day	Date	Venue	Start - Finish
Thursday	25 th January 2024	Hutt Hospital, Clock Tower Building, Learning Centre, L1, Meeting Room 2,	0800-1630
Thursday	6 th June 2024
Thursday	26 th September 2024		